

ACP celebrates its 1year & India's 67th

Happy Independence Day for Indians back in the motherland and NRI's and PIO's around the world!

August 15th also marks 1 year for the Andhra Cultural Portal. So from all of us at ACP (now back from our summer break) thank you to all of our dedicated (and fast growing!) readership for reading and to all of our supporters for supporting this community effort. It is you, the global Andhra (and Bharatiya), that truly makes this portal an e-Society for all true lovers of the Telugu language, Andhra culture, and Indic Civilization.

Thanks and we look forward to another great year for ACP, and more importantly, many, many, many more years for the Republic of India. Vande Mataram!
